EDITORIAL NOTE

Welcome to the “Infinite Opportunities” that define Central Delaware! Each year, as we put together this publication, we work diligently to highlight the best of what our region has to offer. As you turn the pages of this guide, we want you to see what we see in this region that we call “home”: a vibrant community where opportunities abound. Our hope is that this publication will give you the information you need to take advantage of these opportunities as you live, work, and play here. Whether you are a resident or a visitor, we invite you to experience life in the fast lane at our speedway, festivals, and other small-town events featuring food, libations, and music, OR enjoy a slower pace with a visit to our parks, historic landmarks, and museums.

Central Delaware is constantly evolving. New businesses are taking root, new housing developments are springing up, new faces are joining the momentum of life here in the middle of the first state – we are excited to share this region with you! As you peruse this booklet, be aware that CDCC membership information, business listings, etc., in this publication were current as of May 1, 2024. In addition, because of the fluidity present in many schedules, please check with the appropriate venues prior to attending any gathering listed in this guide. Finally, please note that there will be an election this November and some of our areas political figures are likely to change.

We are glad you’re here and we hope you have an opportunity to explore the unique character of Central Delaware. If there’s anything we can do to assist you, don’t hesitate to call on us – we love sharing our hometown!

Welcome!

DELAWARE - THE FIRST STATE

DELAWARE STATE FLAG

The State Flag of Delaware was adopted July 24, 1913. In accordance with the design authorized at that time the State Flag has a background of colonial blue, surrounding a diamond of buff color in which is placed the coat of arms of the State of Delaware. The colors and bearing of the coat of arms are defined in chapter 62, volume 26, Laws of Delaware. Below the diamond are the words, "December 7, 1787," indicating the day on which Delaware was the first State to ratify the Federal Constitution.

Because of this action, Delaware became the first in the Union and is therefore accorded the first position in such national events as presidential inaugurations.

THE STATE BIRD

A tradition recorded by the historians of Delaware in their writings relating to the "Blue Hen's Chickens," it is told that during the early days of the Revolutionary War the men of Captain Jonathan Caldwell's company, recruited in Kent County, took with them game chickens noted for their fighting ability. These chickens were said to be of the brood of a famous blue hen.

The fame of these cockfights spread throughout the army, and when in battle the Delaware men fought so valorously that they were compared to these fighting cocks, with the result that they received the sobriquet "Blue Hen's Chickens."

Although a law was not enacted and approved until April 14, 1939, by which the "Blue Hen Chicken" was adopted as the official bird of the State of Delaware, it is interesting that it received unofficial recognition through the years.

STATE FISH

The sea trout, also known as weakfish, was adopted as the state fish because of its growing abundance in the Delaware Bay and the increased emphasis on sea trout fishing.

STATE NICKNAMES

Delaware is called "The First State" in recognition of being the first of the 13 states to ratify the United States Constitution. This occurred on December 7, 1787, at a session in Dover. President Thomas Jefferson referred to Delaware as being like a diamond, because it had great worth even though it was small, and this led to the additional nickname of "The Diamond State."

STATE FRUIT

Adopted May 13, 2010, the strawberry is an important product of Delaware's agricultural industry. Delaware strawberries are bred for taste, not to be big or last a long time on a store shelf.

Learn more about strawberries in the "Food for Thought" PSA brought to you by the Delaware Department of Agriculture.

THE STATE TREE

By Act of the General Assembly of the State of Delaware approved by the Governor on May 1, 1939, the American Holly, often called Christmas holly or evergreen holly, became the official State Tree of Delaware. In Delaware the trees rarely exceed 60 feet in height and a trunk diameter of 20 inches. The tree bears a profusion of sweet smelling flowers in May and June. Later, bright red berries appear, and it is from the dark green thorny leaved foliage with the red berries that the various Christmas greens and decorations are made.

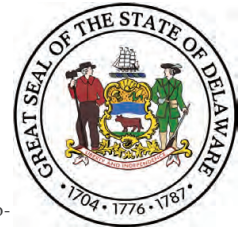

THE STATE FLOWER

The Peach Blossom was adopted as the official floral emblem of the State of Delaware on May 9, 1895. Prior to the passage of this act there had been much sentiment among some of the citizens of the State who favored the Golden Rod as the State Flower. As a result of this sentiment the agriculturalists and the school children sent petitions to the legislature pointing out that Delaware had the reputation of being the "Peach State" since her orchards contained more than 800,000 peach trees, which yielded a crop worth thousands of dollars. These reasons prompted the adoption of the Peach Blossom as the official State Flower.

THE STATE SEAL

The great seal of the State of Delaware was first adopted on January 17, 1777, with the current version being adopted April 29, 2004. It contains the state coat of arms surrounded by an inscription, "The Great Seal of the State of Delaware," and the years 1704 (when the Lower Counties on the Delaware established their own General Assembly), 1776 (when the colonial General Assembly declared Delaware an independent state), and 1787 (when Delaware was the first state to ratify the Constitution).

THE STATE BUG

Adopted April 25, 1974, the Lady Bug was chosen by the Legislature after an intensive effort on the insect's behalf by a group of elementary school children.

STATE DESSERT: PEACH PIE

On July 30, 2009, peach pie was designated as Delaware's official State dessert. Peach farming is an important part of Delaware's agricultural heritage, as the peach was introduced to Delaware in Colonial times and expanded as an industry in the nineteenth century. Delaware was the country's leading producer of peaches for part of the nineteenth century, at its peak, shipping 6 million baskets to market in 1875. The fifth and sixth grade students of St. John's Lutheran School in Dover, with the support of the entire student body, suggested that peach pie be adopted as this State's official dessert because of the historical and agricultural significance of Delaware's peach farming industry.

The City of Dover, located in Kent County approximately 90 miles south of Philadelphia and 90 miles east of Washington, is the capital of Delaware. Dover encompasses a larger area than any other city on the Delmarva Peninsula and has an estimated population of 39,554 as of 2022.

The City was founded in 1683 by William Penn and was officially laid out over 125 acres by the General Assembly in 1717. The greatest periods of expansion in Dover occurred in the years following World Wars I and II. Completion of the DuPont Highway throughout the length of Delaware in 1924 acted as a catalyst for rapid growth. In 1869, the town of Dover purchased “40 fire buckets, six ladders and four fire hooks for the use of the town in case of a fire. Around this same time the town approved the purchase of a hook and ladder apparatus “not to exceed $260.” In 1882, 17 men met in the Old Fellows Hall each contributing $1.00. The company had been active before 1882, but things really came together once they were officially organized as a volunteer fire company, which they remain to this day.

Land that the City acquired for construction of an airport was developed and activated during World War II as the Dover Air Force Base. Since that time, the base has developed into one of the largest military freight terminals in the world and is home to the 436th and 512th Airlift Wings. It is also home to the largest military mortuary in the Department of Defense and has been used for processing military personnel killed in both war and peacetime.

Today, Dover is a thriving community. Residential, commercial, industrial, and institutional development continue at a stable rate. Dover supports two public school districts, charter, and religious based education as well at three colleges. Many major employers provide a diversity of employment opportunities from government to manufacturing. Dover’s citizens are protected by a professional police force of 109 uniformed officers.

The city operates under a Council City-Manager form of government. Dover’s governing body is composed of a Mayor and nine Council Members, who are elected by a non-partisan vote, with one Council Member elected by Council to serve as Council President. Two members of City Council are elected from each of the four Council districts; the ninth member of Council and the Mayor are elected at large. On February 6, 2012, the City’s Charter was amended to extend the term lengths of the Mayor and Council from two years to four years. Beginning with the municipal election held in May 2023, elected officials now serve four-year staggered terms. City Council meetings are held in City Hall on the second and fourth Mondays of each month and are open to the public. City of Dover Municipal elections are held in odd-numbered years on the third Tuesday in April. Residents may register to vote at the Department of Elections, 100 Enterprise Place, Suite 5 between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Harrington's roots can be traced back to the 1730's and has always been well established as a key transportation hub for central and southern Delaware. It is a city "Where Delaware Comes Together," and is strategically located on Route #13, a major north/south corridor.

The City is rich in history since its incorporation by the General Assembly in 1869, a history that includes being included as a "Railroad Town" in the Management Plan for Delaware's Historical Archeological Resources, and is today, still centered around the railroad junction site.

The Fairgrounds and Harness Racing, two longtime Harrington traditions, are included in the foundation for the city's new growth and future development. Today, the present day track – while being the oldest continuously operating harness track in the country – has over 450 employees and has attracted a flood of people and money coming to play the slots and enjoy the entertainment.

Harrington continues to thrive and grow with a variety of resources for both youth and adults. There has been an expansion of businesses, restaurants and motels, with an expectation of more to come.

The local government provides a variety of services, with a City Hall that addresses the general operations of the city, a Planning & Inspections Department that continues to maintain the character and safety of the community, as well as a Public Works Department that preserves the infrastructure that serves the city. The Police Department and the Fire Department serve the community and sponsor community events and school outreach programs. There is a community garden and a Downtown District, as well as a Historical District.

Many programs and activities are offered to both youth and adults through the Parks & Recreation Department, including community events such as the Harrington Parade, and Heritage Day. The Library provides diversified, accurate materials, programs and services that enhance the quality of life for people of all ages. There is an active Senior Center that offers residents over 50 a place to interact with fellow citizens in a wide range of activities and support services. The City has local schools, churches, medical services, manufacturing and industrial sites (both existing and available), as well as a full range of housing opportunities.

Harrington is known as the "Hub of Delaware" due to its central location within the State. The City is very community oriented and supports its local businesses and professionals, while providing a sustainable quality of life for its residents. As we continue to grow, the City has numerous construction incentives, waivers and development fee reductions - and we invite you to come grow with us!

Ideally located to major transportation arteries, Smyrna is a crossroads along Delaware's major north-south interchanges of U.S. Route 1 and U.S. Route 13. Only forty-five minutes to an hour from Wilmington and within an easy drive to Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington D.C., and Delaware beaches, our town is without boundaries to cultural, commercial, and recreational opportunities. Through reasonable rental costs, a favorable tax environment, and efficient town services, the Town of Smyrna is committed to a secure environment for business investment.

Starting as a small community over 250 years ago, Smyrna has grown to a community of just under 12,000 residents with excellent schools and a strong community involvement. With projects such as the 220-acre Duck Creek Industrial Park, the Town welcomes growth and the tremendous potential economic opportunities will bring.

Delaware Gross Receipts Tax: Delaware imposes a tax on the gross receipts of most businesses. Business and occupational gross receipts tax rates range from 0.0945% to 1.9914%, depending upon the category of business activity. Unless specified otherwise by statute, the term “gross receipts” comprises the total receipts of a business; no deductions for the cost of goods or property sold, labor costs, interest expense, discount paid, delivery costs, state or federal taxes, or any other expenses are allowed. In instances where a taxpayer derives income from more than one type of activity, separate licenses and gross receipts taxes are required for each activity. license. The DMV website (www.dmv.de.gov) has a complete list of acceptable documents as well as a 'Document Selector Guide' located under Driver Services to help you determine which documents to bring with you. All applicants will be required to fill out an application and pass an eye screening test. Written and road tests may be given, but they are normally waived if your license is valid. Suspended and revoked licenses cannot be transferred until the withdrawal action is cleared.

Any driver under the age of 18 who was issued a driver's license by another state must also obtain a Delaware license within 60 days after becoming a Delaware resident. The applicant must have completed an approved driver education course. The Department of Education (302-857-3320) will ensure out-of-state courses are equivalent to Delaware driver education requirements. The applicant must pass a written and road examination conducted by the Delaware Division of Motor Vehicles and an eye screening. The application must be signed by an approved sponsor. If the minor applicant was issued an out-of-state license for less than 12 months, he/she may be eligible for a Level 1 Learner's Permit. Military members on active duty and their dependents are not required to acquire a Delaware license until 60 days after separation from the service. They may use a valid out-of-state license to drive in this State. The Delaware DMV began issuing 8-year driver's licenses January 1, 2012. Driver's licenses may be issued for less than eight years depending on the length of a person's authorized legal presence in the United States. DOVER AIR FORCE BASE

C-17 GLOBEMASTER III

The C-17 Globemaster III is the newest, most flexible cargo aircraft to enter the airlift force. The C-17 is capable of rapid strategic delivery of troops and all types of cargo to main operating bases or directly to forward bases in the deployment area. The aircraft can perform tactical airlift and airdrop missions and can also transport litters and ambulatory patients during aeromedical evacuations when required. The inherent flexibility and performance of the C-17 force improve the ability of the total airlift system to fulfill the worldwide air mobility requirements of the United States.

Dover Air Force Base, located approximately five miles south of the capital city of Dover, Delaware, is home to the 436th Airlift Wing (AMC), the 512th Airlift Wing, Air Force Mortuary Affairs Operations and the Armed Forces Medical Examiner System - "Team Dover." Viewed from almost any angle, the impact of the Air Base on the Air Force mission and the landscape and economy of the Del-MarVa Peninsula, is like the two aircraft assigned to Dover; the C-5M Super Galaxy and the C-17 Globemaster III - extremely far-reaching and quite impressive.

THE C-5M SUPER GALAXY

The C-5M Super Galaxy is specifically designed to transport all types of military fighting equipment and associated personnel. Straight through drive-on/drive-off access, using full width doors and ramps at both ends of the aircraft which provides maximum logistical flexibility. The entire spectrum of military inventory, that is anything and everything that the Department of Defense ever intended to be airlifted, can be transported swiftly and efficiently aboard the Galaxy.

Having participated in crisis situations, as well as humanitarian missions which provided supplies for areas ravaged by floods, earthquakes and other natural disasters, C-5Ms have proven they can deliver the goods for America and our allies anywhere on the globe.

THE COMMUNITY

The people of Dover AFB are actively involved in a variety of off-base activities. A strong base-community relations program provides a forum and a spirit for military and civilian cooperation at all levels from the benchmarked Honorary Commander Program to partnering with the Central Delaware Chamber of Commerce and the Leadership Central Delaware program. This spirit and partnership is outstanding - proven by the Central Delaware community winning the Abilene Award.

Each year the Abilene, Texas Chamber of Commerce sponsors a competition to select the community which best supports an Air Mobility Command base. The Central Delaware community has won this award three times, most recently in 2020, for their support and partnership with the Dover Air Force Base. This trophy was won due to the military and civilian sectors operating as a team - Team Dover.

Any questions pertaining to Dover Air Force Base may be referred to the Public Affairs Office, 436th Airlift Wing, 201 Eagle Way, Dover AFB, DE 19902-7219; (302) 677-3372.; dover.af.mil

Founded in 1991, J.P.'s has grown into a Delaware destination. People visit J.P.'s to indulge in our diverse menu while enjoying our scenic fishing village environment on the Delaware Bay. Bowers beach was the docking station for the steam boat, The Frederica, that traveled between here and Philadelphia. The town in its day was a fishing industry hub (oysters, fish, blue crabs, and charter boats). Fishing is a way of life in this small town. J.P.'s takes advantage of the gifts the Delaware Bay has to offer, we pride ourselves on catching our own Rockfish, harvesting oysters and supporting our local crabbers. Everything is cooked to order with the freshest of ingredients.

We've been making salads since before they were cool. And now, more than ever, we're obsessed with fresh. We believe a salad is only as good as where it comes from. That's why we source the best growers for bigger taste. It's why we chop fresh all day, every day. From our kale to our carrots to our quinoa, our promise is as fresh as it gets. At Saladworks, this is where it all began, over thirty years ago. Making salads for the people. By the people. And we plan on making them for a very long time. Because there's nothing trendy about fresh.

Dr. Corey Miklus, Superintendent

The Caesar Rodney School District is the Home of the Riders! The district serves approximately 8,100 students in the towns of Camden, Wyoming, Magnolia, the southern section of Dover (including Dover Air Force Base), and areas from the Delaware Bay to the Maryland border. The district includes 14 schools: one high school, four middle schools, six elementary schools, one kindergarten center, one PreK center, and one countywide school for students ages 2-22 with special needs. Many schools in the district have been recognized for their academic and social accomplishments, including: multiple National Blue Ribbon Schools, Title I Distinguished Schools, Superstars in Education awards, and Purple Star Schools (for their work with military affiliated youth). The Caesar Rodney School District is known for the 4As: Academics, Arts, Athletics, and Atmosphere. The district was the pioneer district for Delaware's Chinese Immersion Program and now offers the Spanish Immersion Program as well. Students have the opportunity to learn in either language, beginning in kindergarten. Furthermore, CR High School offers twenty-seven different Advanced Placement (AP) courses, seven world languages, and fourteen career pathways. The district's arts programs are amazing with an award-winning marching band, jazz groups, and multiple vocal ensembles. The district's students produce an average of seven staged shows annually and always host a visual Evening of the Arts in conjunction with the Night of Jazz. Athletically, the district boasts a 70% winning average with 43 different sports teams offered at the freshman, JV, and varsity levels across three seasons of play. The district is also proud of being one of Delaware's founding schools for Unified Athletics, which supports the inclusion of special needs athletes and partners across multiple sports and seasons. CAPITAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

198 Commerce Way, Dover, DE 19904

capital.k12.de.us

Dr. Vilicia Cade, Superintendent

Capital School District epitomizes the heart of Delaware serving city, suburb, and rural residents, thus illuminating why Senator Nation embodies such strong pride and enthusiasm for celebrating diversity. Capital School District serves a population of approximately 6,500 students that represent over 22 languages. The district employs a complement of approximately 1500 full-time and part-time staff in twelve schools across the Greater Dover area. The District operates seven K-4 schools (with preschool programs at most elementary sites), two middle schools, and one high school. Capital School District is also home to two intensive learning centers for students that have significant needs.

Capital is the home of the Senators, and Senator pride is demonstrated by the large number of staff members that are alumnae. The ethos of care is pervasive and a cornerstone of the district's culture. The district has the privilege to be located near the Dover Air Force base, offering educational options to active military personnel.

As the Chief Executive Officer and Superintendent, Dr. Cade understands the quintessential importance of uplifting the needs of students, staff, and parents within the community. Capital School District is focused on Meeting the Needs of the Whole Child. The goal is to help our students reflect the Portrait of a Senator- students who are Learners, Respectful, Honest, Engaged, Compassionate, Accountable, Responsible, and Determined. This is accomplished through a comprehensive approach to Teaching and Learning that incorporates: Delivery in a Safe and Supportive Environment, Built to be Standards Based, Organized for Personalized Learning, Focused on Rigorous Instruction, and Measured through Dynamic Assessment.

In Fall 2021, the district embraced three cornerstones of the core values: excellence through equity, unity through love, and leadership through inclusiveness. In Spring 2023, the district launched a new strategic direction and an era of advancing educational excellence through innovation.

WE ARE SENATOR NATION! Spurring the Audacity of Hope Uncovering the Magic of New Beginnings!

"Educational excellence today for a changing tomorrow."

First State Military Academy is a 9-12 public charter high school where all cadets are members of the Marine Corps JROTC program. Our purpose is to provide all cadets the knowledge, skills, and attributes, they will need to thrive in post-secondary education, work, and civic life. We are part of the New Tech Network. Our shared vision for student success – college and career readiness for all students – has a very specific meaning in the Network. What we mean is that every graduate of a New Tech school leaves aware, eligible and prepared to pursue postsecondary education or training. Our cadets engage in a rigorous project-based learning teaching method in which students gain knowledge and skills by working for an extended period to investigate and respond to an authentic, engaging and complex question, problem, or challenge.

RECREATION IN CENTRAL DELAWARE

KENT COUNTY

Kent County, through Parks and Recreation, offers year-round cultural, physical, educational and nature activities for all ages. A multitude of both youth and adult programs and leagues can be found at the Kent County Parks & Recreation Center. In addition, the County maintains several beautiful County Parks including:

BRECKNOCK COUNTY PARK

The Kent County Department of Community Services, Parks Division, operates the park on a year-round, dawn to dusk, seven days a week basis. Vehicle parking is available within the park all year during the same hours. The 86-acre park includes significant historic landmark features including a 19th century barn, 18th century residence, the ruins of a 19th century grain mill and the remains of the earthen millpond dam. A pedestrian only nature and hiking trail follows the entire Isaacs Branch stream corridor. The public may use the horseshoe pits, beach sand volleyball courts, athletic fields, pavilions and picnic tables. The Picadilly Playground within the park is a ¾ acre playscape for children from tots through 12 years of age. The park and all the athletic and recreational amenities are free to the public. Facilities in the park may not be reserved for use by any group. Call (302)744-2495 for more information.

BIG OAK COUNTY PARK

Kent County's Big Oak County Park is a 90-acre site bordered on the west and north by SR1 (Exit 114 – South Smyrna Exit) and on the south by Big Oak Road (C.R. 325). It includes forty acres leased to the Delaware Aero Space Education Foundation (DASEF) for Space and Earth Science education and recreation. Big Oak County Park's free public access recreation and conservation demonstration areas make it a major regional outdoor destination. Big Oak is Kent County's third major park, joining Brecknock Park in Camden and Brown's Branch Park. Kent County Levy Court dedicated Big Oak County Park and opened it for public use on September 30, 2006. Many recreation and conservation development and preservation activities have been underway since the spring of 2003. Although many of the recreation and conservation amenities are now well-established, major, new recreation facilities are still planned for development in 2008 and 2009. Amenities include a 96 seat (12 tables) pavilion, public restrooms, ADA accessible activities and pathways. Other features include a one-of-a-kind playscape, sports fields, and ample parking. Please note: No person or organization can reserve or control any facility (pavilion) or area within any Kent County Park. Park generally opens one hour after sunup and closes one hour before sundown.

BROWNS BRANCH COUNTY PARK

Kent County's Browns Branch County Park, 1415 Killens Pond Road, Harrington, Delaware is a joint project of the Kent County Levy Court, Department of Community Services, the Delaware Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control, Land and Water Conservation Trust Fund, and members of the Delaware General Assembly. Browns Branch includes free public access of 38 acres of forested floodplain and 40 acres of former tilled uplands, with the latter being converted to active recreation such as baseball and soccer fields, volleyball, horseshoe, picnicking, a youth (ages 2 through 12) playground and a future chip and putt practice golf. A mature evergreen buffer and roadside hardwood buffer have been established on the perimeter of the active recreation areas. Along with active recreation, Browns Branch was designed to support the quiet, passive recreation and conservation elements of regional recreation pursuits such as hiking, birding, and personal solitude. A beautiful walking trail has been established which interacts with a uniquely designed wetland boardwalk. This trail terminates in a charming and picturesque public picnic area. Amenities include a 96 seat (12 tables) divided between three (3) open-air picnic areas, public restrooms, ADA accessible activities and pathways. Other features include a one-of-a-kind playscape, sports fields, and ample parking. Please note, no person or organization can reserve or control any facility (pavilion) or area within any Kent County Park. Park generally opens one hour after sunup and closes one hour before sundown.

Our state's parks cover more than 20,000 acres of land include twelve miles of ocean beaches, salt water bays, dunes, surf, seabird colonies, three in land ponds, grassy meadows, running brooks, rolling slopes, a beaver colony and diversified woodlands in picturesque settings. There is unlimited opportunity in Delaware to enjoy America's great outdoors. Most Delaware State Parks are open for public use throughout the year with limited facilities in December, January, and February. A park entrance fee for vehicles is in effect daily from March 1st to November 30th. This revenue is used to operate and maintain the state parks system. For inland parks, the entrance fee is $4.00 for Delaware registered vehicles and $8.00 for out-of-state vehicles. For coastal parks, the entrance fees are $5.00 and $10.00 respectively. An annual permit is $35.00 for registered Delaware vehicles and $70 for out-of-state vehicles. Senior Citizens 62 and over pay $18.00 in state and $35.00 out of state.

We welcome you to Delaware's state parks. Your participation and enjoyment will help fulfill our aims — life enrichment through a quality environment and the best possible public service to people. DELAWARE DIVISION OF FISH & WILDLIFE

HUNTING

Situated midway down the Atlantic fly way, Delaware annually is host to large flocks of wintering water fowl especially Greater Snow Geese. Waterfowl hunters also gather here in great numbers, in season, to reap a harvest of these fine sporting birds. The State's white-tailed deer population has increased dramatically in the last ten years, providing sportsmen and naturalists many hours of pleasure and an ample supply of venison. Quail populations, especially in lower Delaware, are present while the ubiquitous cotton tail is readily available where ample food and cover occur.

FISHING

Whether you prefer the quiet solitude of bass and pan fish angling in one of Delaware's many fresh water ponds, or the excitement of hitting a school of sea trout or bluefish in the Delaware Bay, Delaware fishing is fun! Public piers are located at Woodland Beach and Lewes. Public boat access facilities are available at Augustine, Collins Beach, Woodland and Bowers Beaches, Port Mahon, Cedar Creek, and Lewes. A general fishing license is required for fishing in all waters of the State of Delaware including both tidal and non-tidal waters. A license may be obtained from the Dover office, on-line or from more than 100 license agents (most sporting goods and hardware stores), throughout the State. A fishing license is valid through December 31 for the calendar year in which it was issued. To purchase a fishing license on-line, go to: www.dnrec.state.de.us – select "licenses – hunting, fishing, boating." The optional boat license for recreational fishermen covers not only the holder of the license, but all occupants in that boat, as do the charter boat and head boat licenses.

SURFISHING

The Division of Parks and Recreation surf fishing beaches are Beach Plum Island, Cape Henlopen State Park, Delaware Seashore State Park and Fenwick Island State Park. Special restrictions and regulations apply to these areas. For information regarding the purchase of a Surf Fishing Permit and additional rules and regulations, contact the Division of Parks and Recreation (302)739-9200.

SHELLFISHING

Hard clams and blue claw crabs attract many recreational shell fishermen to Delaware. A fishing license is required to crab and clam in all waters of the State of Delaware. For additional information, rules and regulations, contact the Division of Fish and Wildlife (302)739-9910. Or write to: Office of Information and Education, DNREC, 89 Kings Highway, Dover, DE 19901.

BOATING SAFETY

Anyone born on or after January 1, 1978 must successfully complete an approved boating safety course before operating a motorboat and/or Personal Watercraft (PWC) in Delaware. Additionally, a Personal Flotation Device (PFD) must be worn by a child 12-year-old and under while aboard a boat which is underway and by all PWC riders. The PFD must also be zipped. For additional information, rules and regulations contact (302)739-9916.
